Special Girl

Wiley

I need someone who understands me
(That's what I need)
I need some body who will guide me
(That's what I need)
I need somebody who's the opposite to me
She doesn't always agree
(That's what I need)
I need a girl who doesn't flex like a yati
(That's what I need)I need someone who's gonna stand by
(That's what I need)
I need someone who understands life
(That's what I need)
I need someone who's got a magic touch
(That's what I need)
I need someone who's just calm
And doesn't think that she's rough
(That's what I need)I'va had enough too much pain to my head
Stress and lies Ive had enough now
(I need someone)
Yeah, I've had enough playin' around
Creepin' n' cheatin'
I've had enough now
(I need someone)Yeah, I've had enough I can't cope
I just wanna make doh with my niggas plus
(I need someone)
Yeah, I've had enough it's all long
Chattin' on the phone for what?
I've had enough now
(I need someone)My heart was cold before this now
(I need someone)
Yeah and I've always been a playa now
(I need someone)
See, I didn't ever think that I would ever need
(I need someone)
See how things change now 'cos
(I need someone)The feeling in my bodys sayin'
(I need someone)
Yeah I want that special girl to know that
(I need someone)

And I don't really care who knows 'cos
(I need someone)
I know I need someone, I know I need someoneI need someone who understands me
(That's what I need)
I need some body who will guide me
(That's what I need)
I need somebody who's the opposite to me
She doesn't always agree
(That's what I need)
I need a girl who doesn't flex like a yati
(That's what I need)I need someone who's gonna stand by
(That's what I need)
I need someone who understands life
(That's what I need)
I need someone who's got a magic touch
(That's what I need)
I need someone who's just calm
And doesn't think that she's rough
(That's what I need)I think I need somebody who can flex
(I need someone)
I think I need somebody with ambition
(I need someone)
I think I need somebody who is smart
(I need someone)
I think I need sex on demand when I want it
Yeah, I think I need somebody with brains
(I need someone)I think I need somebody who is street wise
(I need someone)
I think I need to save in your bank, girl
'Cos my moneys gettin' spent,
I'm still hustlin', I can't stop hustlin'
(I need someone)
It's hard
(I need someone)
I think I need somebody who's a ghetto girl
(I need someone)Yeah, I think I need somebody who's a choong girl
(I need someone)
And I think I need somebody who knows
About the world that we're livin' in
(I need someone)
I'm sure dat
(I need someone)It's on my brain and it won't go away
(I need someone)
I think it everyday, I'm sure that
(I need someone)

I can't stop, it must be real now my times comin' up
(I need someone)
YeahI need someone who understands me
(That's what I need)
I need some body who will guide me
(That's what I need)
I need somebody who's the opposite to me
She doesn't always agree
(That's what I need)
I need a girl who doesn't flex like a yati
(That's what I need)I need someone who's gonna stand by
(That's what I need)
I need someone who understands life
(That's what I need)
I need someone who's got a magic touch
(That's what I need)
I need someone who's just calm
And doesn't think that she's rough
(That's what I need)I need somebody like a wifey
That likes me for who I am
That done know who I am
True I am, true to you
I still do shit
To allow me 'cos I will do shitAnd don't question the smell 'cos I still move bits
(I need someone)
That puts in the work and will move hips
(I need someone)
Makes mills of her own, buys bits of her own
(I need someone)That's not one of them thats sit on the phone
Main chill on her own
Goes from Uni to home 'cos thats beauty alone
A cutie that I can smell from a distance
(That's what I need)The unique cologne
Nuttin' too deep, she's happy with just seein' me
Nuttin' to sweet
(That's what I need)
A girl that's strong minded
I can't deal with nothin' too weak
(That's what I need)I need someone
I need someone
I need someone
I need someone
I need someone
I need someone
I need someone
