

I Walk the Thinnest Line

The Dead Milkmen

I walk the thinnest line
I walk the thinnest line
I walk the thinnest line
Between the light and dark sides of my mind
I walk the thinnest line
I walk the thinnest line
I walk the thinnest line
Between the good and bad sides of my mind

And when I'm bad I sit in a tree
And spit on people who walk under me
When I'm good I stay at home
I've got 29 kids all named Jerome

I walk the thinnest line
I walk the thinnest line
I walk the thinnest line
Between the light and dark sides of my mind
I walk the thinnest line
I walk the thinnest line
I walk the thinnest line
Between the good and bad sides of my mind

And when I'm sad I go to a club
Drink enough beer to fill a bathtub
When I'm glad I make a wish
Find a wife who has read "My Little Fish"

I walk the thinnest line
I walk the thinnest line
I walk the thinnest line
Between the light and dark sides of my mind
I walk the thinnest line
I walk the thinnest line
I walk the thinnest line
Between the good and bad sides of my mind

And when I'm bored I watch TV
A million things I want to see
To fill my mind on either side

Dear TV I want to take you for my briiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiide

I walk the thinnest line

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com

written by DEAN SABATINO, JOSEPH GENARO, RODNEY LINDERMAN, DAVID SCHULTHISE

Lyrics Â© BUG MUSIC O/B/O GOLF PRO MUSIC

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>