Trance

Tiger Army

girl, just look into my eyes. you're starting to feel hypnotized... emralds, cobras, dreams of dying. feelings that there's no describing. forget all you know and come to me (right... now). mesmerized by fires of hell. now you are under my spell. come closer and take my hand. you are now at my command. everything is spinning as you fall into a trance... voodoo power. feel your will draining away. you didn't want it anyway. leave them all behind and don't look back into my coffin cadillac. a possession of your soul. you hear only the devil's call in your trance, trance, trance, trance...
