

Crash Course to Hollywood

Tim Halperin

It's like looking before crossing the street
There's nothing that can guarantee
What lies ahead, which way to go
But half the fight is wanting to know
You think I'm caught up in what could be
Have I gotten too old to believe
Taking it back, I'm stepping aside
Changing my course, I'm coming alive Oh, it's like nothing you've seen before
Oh, I'm just trying to break down the door
This could be my big mistake,
But if I wait it'll be too late
And oh, crash course to Hollywood
That life looks so good on TV
Wearing clothes designed just for me
Seeing the world and being a star
Taking my chance, and taking it far Oh, it's like nothing you've seen before
Oh, I'm just trying to break down the door
This could be my big mistake,
But if I wait it'll be too late
And oh, crash course to Hollywood And if I hold my breath it gets harder to sing
And I think Paul was right when he said 'Let it Be'
It's like I'm trying to drive, but it's driving me
And I gotta believe, oh yeah I gotta believe
I gotta believe This is waking me up when I sleep
Living life by the skin of my teeth
I've lost it all, decided to run
But in the end, maybe I've won
Oh, it's like nothing you've seen before
Oh, I'm just trying to break down the door
This could be my big mistake,
But if I wait it'll be too late
And oh, crash course to Hollywood
I said oh, crash course to Hollywood
I said Hollywood

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>