Yes I Was Drunk

Twin Atlantic

you'd be the same
the windows were bending decorated with rain i couldnt speak because my thinking was stunned i picked up the key you forced me to runnothing could stop me leaving the impulse runs through my blood i hope you live for your freedom i hope you enjoy the lustand i got in the car and put it into first no stopping for lights cause my vision was blurred one hand on the wheel the other open and cut you know i still have control you know i wanted to stay the car in front tapping on off the breaksnothing could stop me leaving
i hope you enjoy the lustso i let go..... ignoring the lights
that mark out the road
and i wanted to meet the one the one with the healthy glow
so i let go you made me let goi think i just needed a rush needed a rush x 4nothing could stop me speeding im missing that bend in the road and then a head on collision is how i lost controll
wanted to meet the one

you made me let goi think i just needed a rush needed a rush x 4
