Daddy's Little Girl

Michael Bolton

You're the end of the rainbow, my pot of gold
You're daddy's little girl to have and hold
A precious gem is what you are
A ray of hope, a shining star
You're as bright as the sunshine, morning's first light
You warm my day, brighten my night
You're sugar, you're spice, you're everything nice
And you're daddy's little girl
A precious gem that's what you are
A ray of hope, a shining star
You're as bright as the sunshine, morning's first light
You warm my day and brighten my night
You're sugar, you're spice, you're everything nice
And you're daddy's little girl
