

Love Is Like an Ocean

Axxis

Hey, darling - you're so far away
This wall can't divine our love - I pray
I need you - I want to see you
No frontier can change my loveCause every drop of love could be
A mighty stream of sympathy
And every stone is flowing awayLove is like an ocean
Love is where I'm diving in
Love is like an ocean
Love is a weapon which could winA few footsteps - but world apart
And a thousand lonely fates
If they hold together with love
The stones come tumbling downAnd every part of history
Builds up the wall and you will see
That every stone is flowing awayLove is like an ocean
Love is where I'm diving in
Love is like an ocean
Love is a weapon which could win
