

ICU In Everything

Big Head Todd & The Monsters

Well, Im finished counting
Another game of hide and seek
I hear you running
I can feel your heartbeat nowThere aint nothing thats gonna keep me
From discovering
You know Im panting
Ill drink from your loving springMissing you is ecstasy
I see you in everything
Wanting you, aint suffering
I see you in everythingUnderstanding
Things aint what they seem to be
All my planningLeft me on the wrong street now
I dont need another one whos gonna shelter me
So come on, baby, the cabby is waiting
And the meter is onMissing you is ecstasy
I see you in everything
Wanting you, aint suffering
I see you in everythingAnd if we hesitate, we might never know
So what if a heart should break
Weve been there before
So let it growI turn around and then I find you
Lord, have mercy
I was looking in the wrong directionSpellbound
Time reminds you
Now you better take it 'cause this loving is realMissing you is ecstasy
I see you in everything
Wanting you, aint suffering
I see you in everything
