Millicent Don't Blame Yourself

Eels

Millicent, don't blame yourself
Sweetheart, there's no one else
More important to me than you
There's nothing that you need to do
To prove to me that you care
I know you doMillicent, just let 'em talk
'Cause this thing, it's a lock
And no one's gonna make that untrue
There's nothing anyone can do
To change the way I feel about you
And you know that's trueMillicent, just lean on me
I know that I can be Everything you need me to be
There's no wall that I can't crash through
There's nothing that I wouldn't do
For you
