Joe Bonamassa

I don't know too much about love baby now, But I sure think I got it bad yeah. I don't know too much about love baby now, But I sure think I got it bad yeah. Some people say love is just a gamble, Ooh whatever it is about to drive me mad yeah. Yeah, lookoutI sit here in my lonely room now, Tears flowin' down my eyes. As I sit here in my lonely room now, Tears flowin' down my eyes. I wonder how you can treat me so low down and dirty. You know what? Your heart must be made out of ice yeah. Sometimes I get so worried baby now, You know I wanna sit down and cry myself to sleep. Sometimes I get so worried baby now, You know I wanna sit down and cry myself to sleep. Cause I don't know too much about love babe, But I sure think I, sure think I, got it bad yeah.Oh, I sure think I got it bad yeah.
