

Lookin Good

Bratz

Trouble seems to find me everywhere I go
Driving me insane about to blow, out the window
Bugging everyone there is to know
Digging me a little black hole, I was so lowUnlock the door to get out
I turn around
I can see it nowNo it won't make me cry
It's just another illusion
It's a matter of time
Till I get it rightIt's blowin' my mind
This 21th century confusion
Ain't no wonder why
It's just a sign of the timesYou can feel misunderstood
But from where I'm standing
Thing are lookin' goodIf you standing in the gutter in the pouring rain
With all your makeup running down your face
You've gone the wrong way
There was one of two roads that I could take
I didn't want to leave it up to fate, I think I'm okayIt was burning me inside out
And now I turn away
Come and check this outNo it won't make me cry
It's just another illusion
It's a matter of time
Till I get it rightIt's blowin' my mind
This 21th century confusion
Ain't no wonder why
It's just a sign of the timesYou can feel misunderstood
But from where I'm standing
Thing are lookin' good
Thing are lookin' goodYeah, looking good
Looking real good
Things are looking good
Looking so goodBut it won't make me cry
It's just another illusion
It's a matter of time
Till I get it rightIt's blowin' my mind
This 21th century confusion
Ain't no wonder why
It's just a sign of the timesYou can feel misunderstood
But from where I'm standing

Things are lookin' good
