

Your Loves Whore

Wolf Alice

Don't you want take time and get to love me
We could build a perfect world
I got tricks I really want to show you
I could be your perfect girl, alright
And when we grow older
We'll still be friends
We'll still be lovers
And won't fear the end
The light won't flicker and the light won't fade, believe me
And the world looks better in the place we make believe
Hearts keep pumping and there's one thing
That keeps me breathing
Is the mantra I sing and the face I'll always see
And when we grow older
We'll still be friends
We'll still be lovers
And we won't fear the end
And when we grow older (Oooh)
We'll still be friends (Oooh)
We'll still be lovers (Oooh)
And won't fear the end (Oooh)
I let your love tease me
Now I am your love's whore
Keep me hardly breathing
But I can only love you more
I can only love you more
I can only love you more
I can only love you more
I can only love you more
Ah, ah, ah, ah
