

Fine Line

Paul McCartney

There is a fine line
Between recklessness and courage
It's about time
You understood which road to take
It's a fine line
And your decision makes a difference
Get it wrong you'll be making a big mistake

Come home brother all is forgiven
We all cried when you were driven away
Come home brother everything is better
Everything is better when you come home and stay

Whatever's more important to you
You've gotta choose what you want to do
Whatever's more important to be
Well that's the view that you got to see

There is a long way
Between chaos and creation
If you don't say
Which one of these you're going to choose
It's a long way
And if every contradiction seems the same
It's a game that you're bound to lose

Come home brother all is forgiven
We all cried when you were driven away
Come home brother everything is better
Everything is better when you come home and stay

Come on back
Come on back
Come on back to me

(It's a fine line
It's a fine line)

Whatever's more important to you (It's a fine line)
You've gotta choose what you want to do (It's a fine line)

Whatever's more important to be (It's a fine line)

Well that's the view that you got to see

(It's a fine line

It's a fine line

It's a fine line

It's a fine line, ooh

It's a fine line

It's a fine line)
