

Thirteen Grand

Wrens

We talk about that you kept bottled up inside
Makes you laugh then it makes you cry, I said it all too late
Is this real at all? You're not so sure, it's easy, now
Because you're safe, can't change your mind
Movin' on is not fair when it leaves me on my own
I lived my life waitin' for tomorrow but I guess, it's your turn now Is this real at all? You're not so sure, it's easy, now
Because you're safe, can't change your mind
We trade these lines to get us by but what's it matter?
You keep sayin', Jersey's not a home
I thought I had it all figured out but look who got it wrong
Is this real at all? You're not so sure, it's easy, now
Because you're safe, can't change your mind
Is this real at all? Oh, is this real at all? It's easy, now
Because you're safe, can't change your mind
