

Unshakeable Kingdom

Sandi Patty

They came to follow Him
Drawn by what He promised them
If they would sell all that they had;
    He said that God would send
    A kingdom that would never end
    Where all the poor would be so rich,
        And in their discontent
They heard what they thought He meant
They heard that the weak would be strong,
    Bread would be multiplied,
    Hunger be satisfied
    And every servant a king
    In this Kingdom of God;
    A kingdom that would never end
A living, unshakable Kingdom of God

But He went His quiet way
    Giving Himself away,
Building what eyes can never see
While men looked for crowns and thrones
    He walked with crowds alone
    Planting a seed in you and me
    Crying for those who cried
    Dying for those who died
    Bursting forth, glorified! Alive!
And some of them looked for Him,
    Sad that it had to end
But some dared to look within and see!
    The Kingdom of God,
    A kingdom that would never end ...
The living, unshakable Kingdom of God

Still some of us look for Him
    Sad that it has to end
Do we dare to look within and see
    The Kingdom of God,
    A kingdom that will never end ...
The living, unshakable Kingdom of God, of God!
