Waking up into a dream
I feel the time has passed me by,
Ten thousand years beneath the ocean's deep
Ooh, lift me up so high.
Breathing in while I begin to set a course without an end
Into a world that's fallen and lost beneath
Ooh, I'm soaring and I feel the life coming back to me.
Aaaah aaah ah ah
Aaaah aaah ah ah
I don't know why but in this place
Of so much fear and hate inside
It's hard to find the love that's been left behind and broken
All the hearts and strings of all these men of shattered dreams.
Aaaah aaah ah ah
(I wish I knew a way back home)
Aaaah aaah ah ah
Well, the whole world may fall
And crumble to the ground
Never will you be lost,
Because I am found beside you
Always beside you!
Aaaah aaah ah ah
(I wish I knew a way back home)
Aaaah aaah ah ah
(I wish I knew a way back home)
Aaaah aaah ah ah
Aaaah aaah ah ah
(I wish I knew a way back home)
Aaaah aaah ah ah
(I wish I knew a way back home)
Aaaah ah ah.
