

Live and Learn

Angra

[Music: Rafael Bittencourt and Kiko Loureiro / Lyrics: Rafael Bittencourt]Remember the first time you've faced the dark

Why were you so afraid?

Hiding so many secrets inside

When fears have got to be tamedI promise I'll still be there

To keep my promise

I'll still be thereTo watch over dreams at night

And follow you through the day

You shot the doors but I'm right behind

Where shadows remainI promise I'll still be there

To say I promise

I 'll still be thereDon't ask me why we'll be like brothers

Skating on the ice of mortal lonelinessLive and learn with your mind

Find a way out of madness

You dream on (of) paradise

Who's gonna take you there
