

Every Now and Then

Earth, Wind & Fire

I think that the worst is through
I'm almost over you
I guess it was just a matter of time
I've started going out, how long can anybody go without? Before you start goin' out of your mind
Even so, I confess
There are times when my heart rules over my head Every now and then
I find myself wondering about you baby
Seems now and again
I can't escape the thought of all that might have been
Every now and then Morning's the hardest time
I wake up dreamin' 'bout you and I
Some days I can't remember them all
Evenings are painful still
I can't help wondering if they always will be I can't help noticing this emptiness, baby
I don't cry, every night
Just the ones when I feel like I feel tonight Every now and then
I find myself wondering about you baby
Seems now and again
I can't escape the thought of all that might have been
Every now and then When I'm alone anytime I hear music play
When I reach, reach for the phone
Why does everything good
Make me think of you baby Every now and then
I find myself wondering about you baby
Seems now and again
I can't escape the thought of all that might have been
Every now and then
