Go

Two Banks of Four

Me and my dudes hanging out just came to have a good time, oh
This mommy's checkin' me out, smiling and winkin' her eye, oh
Then she steps up to me, grabs my hand, takes me to the floor, oh no
And when she starts to dance I knew trouble was at my door, no
'Cause I got a girl at home and she's trusting me to do the right thing
I just came to have some fun, I didn't come to hook up with anyone
If I was single still I would stay and chill
I gotta go, go, go, go
I need to escape 'fore it's too late
I gotta go, go, go, go, go, go
Gotta go, hey
You pushin' all up on me, baby it's turnin' me on, wow
And in a second or two I'm gonna do something wrong, wow
And if I don't intervene ain't no tellin' what I'm gonna do, not now
And I know that my girl don't want me hangin' out with you, no
Girl, you makin' this too hard and it's killing me to have to leave
I just came to have some fun, I didn't come to hook up with anyone
If I was single still I would stay and chill
I gotta go, go, go, go
I need to escape 'fore it's too late
I gotta go, go, go, go, go, go, yeah
I gotta go, oh
Baby, I must admit that I am attracted to you
But I don't wanna mess up
Won't take the chance of losing
Every thing that I have for a one night affair
If I was single still I would stay and chill
I gotta go, go, go, go
I need to escape 'fore it's to late
I gotta go, go, go, go, go
If I was single still I would stay and chill
I gotta go, go, go, go
I need to escape 'fore it's to late
I gotta go, go, go, go, go, go
I gotta go, I gotta go, oh yeah
I gotta go, I gotta go, I gotta go
