

4 Years Old

Chris Brown

I got money
Everything that I ever wanted
Never thought of what I might need, need, need
Ain't it funny, how I spend my whole life running
Reaching for the sky high and coming down with nothing Feels like I'm four years old all over again
Because I'm just running fast and should be walking
Saying when I grow up you gon' see
I'm gon' be comfortable and happy I guess I was faking cause look at all the money I'm making
Still nothing can compare to the thought of love
But it's taking too much time to see that I'm wasting Reaching for the sky high and coming down with nothing It feels like I'm four years old all over again
'Cause I just keep running fast and should be walking
Saying when I grow up you gon' see
I'm gon' be comfortable and happy I'm so alone, I feel so alone, so alone in this world
Got everything I want It feels like I'm four years old all over again
'Cause I just keep running fast and should be walking
Saying when I grow up you gon' see
I'm gon' be comfortable and happy Whoah

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>