Out Of Bounds

Amanda Marshall

I'm standin' on the edge of time
Playin' out a reckless pantomime
And every day's another wrong to rectify
I dream about a stranger's touch
And voices in my head, I cannot hush
And every night's a hunger, I can't satisfy
It's the secret that I keep
It's the ache that makes me weep
And I know I'm in, too deep
I'm gonna drown
It's the emptiness I fear
Baby, please don't leave me here
'Cause I'm lost inside a dream
That's out of bounds
I close my eyes and it's so real
All at once I know just what I feel
Baby, it's the kind of rush that terrifies
And I am weak, I am wrong
And every day I swear that I'll be strong
But there's a bond between us
That I can't deny
It's the secret that I keep
It's the ache that makes me weep
And I know I'm in, too deep
I'm gonna drown
And it's the emptiness I fear
Baby, please don't leave me here
'Cause I'm lost inside a dream
That's out of bounds
I wanna surrender
I wanna give in
I wanna lay down
And let it be now
And let it begin
(Begin)
Let it begin
It's the secret that I keep
It's the ache that makes me weep
And I know I'm in, too deep

I'm gonna drown
And it's the emptiness I fear
Baby, please don't be leavin' me here
'Cause I'm lost inside a dream
That's out of bounds
Out of bounds
Out of bounds
