

Just Because

F.A.T.E.

Just because, just because, just because Because, because, because, because
Just because I don't wanna come home wit ya tonight
Don't mean that I don't want to
And just because I don't wanna lay down wit ya tonight
It don't mean that I don't want you
I need to know
If you're really feelin' me
Tell me so
Cuz what you feel could either turn me on (Or it could just be one of those nights)
Where we can just sit and talk on the phone
(I really wanna go home with you)
But I gotta know just how you feel
And if you feel me, then it's gotta be real
Just because Just because I don't wanna come home wit ya tonight
Don't mean that I don't want to
And just because I don't wanna lay down wit ya tonight
It don't mean that I don't want you
Baby, baby, you can lay me down
(Cuz I'm gettin' hot, can you hit the spot?)
I'm in the mood but won't fool around
(I'm not tryin' to play no games)
Cuz if we move too fast
I know this feel good won't last
And I can't have that
So when you hear me sayin' no to you
Understand
Just because I don't wanna come home wit ya tonight
Don't mean that I don't want to
And just because I don't wanna lay down wit ya tonight
It don't mean that I don't want you
Just because I don't wanna come home wit ya tonight
Don't mean that I don't want to
And just because I don't wanna lay down wit ya tonight
It don't mean that I don't want you
Can't lay me down tonight
But when I feel the time is right
You can hit it if your hat's on tight

If you wanna hit it, ooh, ah, baby
We can do
All the things that you want to
So when you hear me sayin' no to you
It don't mean that I don't want to
Just because I don't wanna come home wit ya tonight
Don't mean that I don't want to
And just because I don't wanna lay down wit ya tonight
It don't mean that I don't want you
