Signs Of Destiny

Anggun

I think I feel my heart is going to stop
I feel my body is about to drop
I have just met you
How strange it feels now that you're finally here
Maybe I'm dreaming but you look so real
Now let me tell you
I made a picture of you in my mind
And a name that I could call
Before I take another step to go
I just need to know
If this is destiny, stop the mystery
I'm looking for a shelter in your heart
Is there a place for me, stop the mystery
I know that we are meant to be together
Believe in destiny, the only mystery
I finally found a missing piece of my heart
I'm trying to make you see, signs of destiny
I'm looking for a shelter in your heart
A place for me to be
Now you might think that this is so insane
I don't believe that love's the one to blame

Love is innocent
I knew you're out there somewhere in this world
I've sensed your presence in every second and I
Knew you were waiting, too
I made a picture of you in my mind
And a name that I could call
Before I take another step to go
I just need to know
If this is destiny, stop the mystery
I'm looking for a shelter in your heart
Is there a place for me, stop the mystery
I know that we are meant to be together
I'm looking for a shelter in your heart
Is there a place for me
I know that we are meant to be together
Believe in destiny
I'm trying to make you see

The signs of destiny
I'm trying to make you see, ooh
The signs of destiny
