

Salvation Stay

Sono Vero

Wicked man, he run away never to be seen again. When the Angels sing, On judgment day that man will pay, fire coming down like rain.

So Salvation, Salvation stay, Salvation Stay. Hesitation, means demise. John witnessed with his own two eyes.
The revelations of this time, deliverance descended by the most high. The seventh trumpet sounds as the father comes down.

With the imposter drowned, Satan's forced underground.

For 1000 years the serpents chained granting rest.

I and I strive to avoid the second death. So in this time of war, prophecies are fulfilled.

In this time of war, the wicked be shall be killed.

In this time of war, repent your wrongs into the light.

Cause this Armageddon is a predetermined fight.

Repeat verse 1 Blasphemous words will soon find death.

Those who worship money and false idols shall protest.

The falling of the West and the lies that they spread.

The cancer in their hearts by the poison in our bread. Our blood bleeds red.

Despite what's in your head.

The leaders in the nation till the corners where they fled.

Our blood bleeds red.

No matter what's been said.

All shall see the Father with the coming in the end. So in this time of war, prophecies be fulfilled.

In this time of war, the wicked be shall be killed.

In this time of war, repent your wrongs into the light.

Cause this Armageddon is a predetermined fight.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>