For The Actor

Mates of State

Oh, you and me on a fantasy
This is what it's like on a fantasyNo, I wouldn't challenge your home
In the basement of words we knew
There were more of usDon't want to make you grow numb
If it's not what you thought it was
Legs are for discoveringRelieved and now we see the road
This is what it's like on a fantasyLittle codes bring the balance to none
And the shapes of your hands do tell of such a rare varietyRelieved and now we see the road
This is what it's like on a fantasyYou put your life on hold as we interest one another
Two steps closer to the level I imagined
I remember when it poured and you sang to me in summer
It's a fantasyRelieved and now we see the road
This is what it's like on a fantasyYou put your life on hold as we interest one another
Two steps closer to the level I imagined
I remember when it poured and you sang to me in summer
It's a fantasyKori:
No, I wouldn't challenge your home
In the basement of words we knew
There were more of usJason:
You put your life on hold as we interest one another
Two steps closer to the level I imagined
I remember when it poured and you sang to me in summer
It's a fantasyDon't want to make you grow numb
If it's not what you thought it was
Legs are for discovering
This is what it's like
This is what it's like on a fantasyPut your life on hold
This is what it's like on a fantasy
