Hey Kids

David Usher

Speak speaking for myself pretned im someone else i never felt the same well this time breath im breathing up the air its burning up my lungs its burning through my hari and i never felt hey kids what are you rocking for stick a finger though the sky imi blowing up the sun the earth is going to die i might die too and all the things i love and all the things i need i never wuite received and its still
i am staning in the rain im laughing at myself today and im breaking from the strain
an di never neede more than all of your bidies dont you know i never deeded more than all of your love its only been a game palpiatation of the heart i never watned more so maybe we could play
the bleeding of the hear you let your missiles fire and we all start to run
