

Hold On

The Greenes

When there's no step left to take.
No moves left to make.
Oppressing fears, tormenting doubts, prayer after prayer still there is no way out.
And it seems like pain is all you gain.

Chorus:

Hold on, hold on.
Through every storm, hold on.
Even in the darkest night,
Walk by faith not sight.
Hold on, hold on.

First there is a Father of love, holding peace like a dove.
In the midst of all your dark despair, with open arms
He is waiting there.
Just holding you, till your hurt is gone.

Chorus:

Hold on, hold on.
Through every storm, hold on.
Even in the darkest night,
Walk by faith not sight.
Hold on, hold on.
