The City

Milosh

Can you see my face?
My expression's erased
I'm stuck in this place
I wanna feel my face
I wanna feel my faceI'm wandering through the city
This calm summer breeze
Brushing across my caseI'm charging up myself
Through these streets I should know
These buildings once covered in snow
Just yesterdayI'm pushing through the years
These warm, younger years
That brought me hereI'm listening as they whisper in my ear
Pushing me back to what I wanna be
What I try to be
That calm, tame beast inside of meCan you see my face?
My expression's erasedInside of me
