

Then Again

Pinegrove

i was totally nervous to go to japan i tried travel once, i lost my keys i was leaning in with my shirt tucked in i was on that train repeating how it's so illogical
it's nothing you can see
we repeat
try it one more time with feeling it's easy
i'm waking in in a usual town every morning is september we could sleep it off and leave it all but in the morning you remember so i split the difference between lonesome and lonely i lay right at your feet i'm laying in when my love crushed in [?] i was on that plane repeating now leaving's so relievinghow it's so illogical
it's no retreating
help me
we repeat
it's easy
