Sacrilege

Psordid

Cast your eyes around the room
Smell the blood you see on the wall
So many sould were stolen today
What do you feel as our dynasty falls

What fools we've become
As our eyes have turned blind
Sould rise up every day
Only to fall down and die

So tell me
What do you feel?
Tell me
Is this real?
Tell me
What do you feel?
Tell me!

Smash your face in the mirror
And bash against the wall
Cry out into the night
Cry as we fall

We can't deny our past
As life is just a game
Empty clones of nothing
Filling void, fill with pain

What fools we've become
As our eyes have turned blind
Sould rise up every day
Only to fall down and die

So tell me
What do you feel?
Tell me
Is this real?
Tell me
What do you feel?

Tell me!

Smash your face in the mirror
And bash against the wall
Cry out into the night
Cry as we fall

Alone we feel, alone we die
All that's left is to cry
Children of the world, we are
We've lost sight of our God
