

Feel It

Elite

Stop, feel, open up, listen, just focus on this and
you don't need permission from nothin. No boundaries houndin me
destined i'm bound to be.
Lessons surroundin me.
stop, learn exist in the present
cuz nothin is perfect and this isn't heaven I've lost. Who hasn't?
New chasms open up everyday
in the depths of this game?
Weapons are spraying--
it's testing your faith.
I guess let's just say
I'm stressin, and hey,
what can i do? What can i say?
Nothin i'm frontin on myself. I'm bluffin.
There's comfort in somethin about it, it's disgustin me.
What can i do with myself? Is entrust in me.
Fuck it.
Everything good that I come across only becomes a loss...
lonely among the stars.Yeah,
position is key.
Experience rules.
Questions can lead to some serious jewels.
Know what you want. Never settle for good cuz good will just get what you already could.
Push, stretch, innovate, yes,
chills, burn, penetrate flesh,
drop floor, hands to the sky
let it all out, make the cameras shy.
Lens is exposed like friends into foes.
It grows in your heartbeat
like roses and concrete,
so quote me a poet and cry me a puddle.
The greatest of evils is grimy but subtle,
and my only goal is to grow and mature.
Materials decorate, knowledge is yours.

Spit from the heart,
jaded cuz I'm too anxious to take it one day at a time.Feeel it...This is Asterisk 2.
