

Is the Feeling Gone

Brian McKnight

Is the feeling gone, my love
Is it not as strong to you and I?
(Are we still in love?)
Has the fire died, my sweet
Don't I sweep you off your feet anymore, baby?
(Tell me if I'm right) This is killing me, baby, it makes me wanna cry
The message you're sending me, baby
Tears me up inside, but tell me where?
(Where are all the butterflies?) 'Cause they no longer move
Inside of you, my love, baby
(Are they dead and gone?)
Have they gone away, my sweet
Or am I buried somewhere deep inside of you, my love?
(Tell me where I am) If I've done something wrong, lady
(What's the nature of my crime?)
Don't keep me hanging on, baby
This is the place and time Is the feeling, feeling, feeling gone, my love?
Where did all this doubt come from in me, my love, mama?
(Have we grown apart?)
Is it cold right here in my arms
Have you found another's heart to keep you warm
Is the feeling gone my love? Is the feeling gone? Tell me if I'm wrong
