Everything

Howard Jones

I want to be The coffee in your pot I want to be the shower in the morning That's steamy and hotI want to be The cherry that paints your lips I want to be the stick shift At your fingertipsWhatever I think of it's never enough To show you my love I want to be your everything I want to be The wine that swirls around your tongue I want to be the Harley That you sit uponI want to be The Elvis that makes you scream and shake I want to be the velvet That hugs your pretty shapeWhatever I think of it's never enough To show you my love I want to be your everything The trouble is you just don't know who the hell I am But I'll change that little detail, if I canWhatever I think of it's never enough To show you my love I want to be, I want to be your everythingThe trouble is you don't even know who the hell I am But I'll change that little detail, if I canWhatever I think of it's never enough To show you my love I want to be, I want to be, I want to be your everything I want to be your everything (That's all just everything) I want to be your everything (That's all just everything)I want to be your, I want to be your I want to be your everything (That's all just everything)
