Romeo Santos

Goodevening ladies and gentleman, please give it up for RS thank you guys thank you very much if u dont mind u can keep playing the piano, go ahead so how you guys like the album,you enjoy it?

wow, im honored

thank you, very nice of you i was trying to include a song in this prod where i could just express my feelings and my thoughts sort of what im feeling at this moment but i couldnt create the right melody im sure you guys have heard many stories, a lot speculations and like usual in every version i'm the bad guy, Romeos the bad guy.

i mean people, sometimes a person can really get very tired of defending themselves over and over again especially when you see YOURe point is not getting across so ive decided to say no more and ill just be amusement and entertainment to you guys i will love those that love me and i will also love those that hate me because haters contribute to my success.

you know continue to do what i do best, music,with my own formula

Thank You
