

Who Will Love Me?

Ania Ziemirska

Perfect, never said I could be, I fucked things up too many times
Wrong, sometimes I can be, and it hurts like hell each time I break a heart

Do my best I try, I try
Til the day, the day I die

Who will love me for who I am?
Who will forgive my every mistake?
When the shit hits the fan and Iâ€™m losing my mind
Who will still be there?

Sorry, Iâ€™ve said so many times, apologized when things were not my fault
Love often makes me run, Iâ€™m waiting for the one whoâ€™ll run with me

Be myself I try, I try
Til the day, the day I die

Who will love me for who I am?
Who will forgive my every mistake?
When the shit hits the fan and Iâ€™m losing my mind
Who will still be there?

Iâ€™ll continue to give more
I know someday it will show

Who will love me for who I am?
Who will forgive my every mistake?
When the shit hits the fan and Iâ€™m losing my mind
Who will still be there?
Who will still be there?
