

Heaven Calling

Vision Divine

In the air
I can only hear the freedom
The night has gone
Now I know my sins are forgiven I stand so still
I lay on a mouldy floor
One ray, one smile
Moon, did you say goodbye? I tried to be ready, now I'm here
There's an angel waiting
Cuddling my dreams, holding my head
Smiling at me... Heaven is calling, the angels are spreading their wings
Over the blue horizon they will fade away
Heaven is calling and I can't believe it's my name
My father is there waiting for me
Overwhelmed I surrender to my feelings
Once again
Ain't no way to guess your decision Goodnight my dear
I'm ready to leave, I'm done
One ray, one smile
Oh, Moon, did I tell you 'bye? If I ever wake up, it won't be here
'Cause my angel's waiting
He's back to me, holding my head
Smiling at me... Heaven is calling, the angels are spreading their wings
Over the blue horizon they will fade away,
Heaven is calling and I can't believe it's my name
My father is there waiting for me, for me, for me, yeah...
Heaven is calling, the angels are spreading their wings
Over the blue horizon they will fade away
Heaven is calling and I can't believe it's my name
My father is there...
