Say You Will

Bosson

I am lost, there's no spark
I am tumbling around in the dark
All alone, out of sight
I am desperately seeking the light
Can't believe, I can't believe that you are gone
But I am trying to move on
Someone tell me it's just a bad dream
That it's just not true
Say you will be home for dinner
Or say you will be working late
But say you will come home to me
Like you used to do 'cause I'm missing you so
Say you will lay down beside me
And say you will just smile and kiss me
And say you will be holding me
Like you used to do 'cause I still love you
As a wife, as a mom
We were waiting for our third to come
You and I had it all
But it was changing from a simple call
Could not breathe
And my whole world was falling apart
Leaving pain inside my heart
Someone tell me it's just a bad dream
That it's just not true
Say you will be home for dinner
Or say you will be working late
But say you will come home to me
Like you used to do 'cause I'm missing you so
Say you will lay down beside me
And say you will just smile and kiss me
And say you will be holding me
Like you used to do 'cause I still love you
And even if you're gone you're still not far
You're here with me, you live inside my heart
And nothing in this world will be the same
Except my love will never change
Say you will be home for dinner
Or say you will be working late

But say you will come home to me
Like you used to do 'cause I'm missing you so
Say you will lay down beside me
And say you will just smile and kiss me
And say you will be holding me
Like you used to do 'cause I still love you
I love you
