

Broken Wing

Ben Darwish

Here comes an opening, she's gotta broken wing
If you can feel the sting
Take care of everything, if she can make a scene
I'll show you what I mean
She pack a loaded gun, set fire to anyone
Knows how to make 'em run
She's down on Sixth Street, she's going sixty
She'll show you how to breathe
I don't want to see, I don't want to be
I don't wanna be anyone, anymore
I don't want to fake, I don't want to break
I don't wanna say anything, anymore
Every time you walk away, I wish you'd stay
Instead of pushing further, further away
Every time I hear you say
I just need one to take this pain away
You're a broken wing, not a broken thing
You can heal in time if you try
It'll be okay, you can walk away
Sweet Julia

Here comes an opening, he's gotta broken wing
If you can feel the sting
Take care of everything, if he can make a scene
I'll show you what I mean
He packs a loaded gun, set fire to anyone
Knows how to make 'em run
He's down on Sixth Street, he's going sixty
He'll show you how to breathe
I don't want to see, I don't want to be
I don't wanna be anyone, anymore
I don't want to fake, I don't want to break
I don't wanna say anything, anymore
Every time you walk away, I wish you'd stay
Instead of pushing further, further away
Every time I hear you say
I just need one to take this pain away
You're a broken wing, not a broken thing
You can heal in time if you try
It'll be okay, you can walk away

Sweet Julia
And I won't laugh, I won't look
I won't listen if you just get up
And I won't laugh, I won't look
I won't listen if you just stand
Every time I lie awake
I wish I could take it all away
Every time my heart breaks
I wish I could make it all seem safe
Every time you walk away, I wish you'd stay
Instead of pushing further, further away
Every time I hear you say
I just need one to take this pain away
You're a broken wing, not a broken thing
You can heal in time if you try
It'll be okay, you can walk away
Sweet Julia
