

God Knows

Lionlimb

If I can't be right with you,
Tell me how I'm wrong.
If I try to fight with you,
Tell me how to get along.
Everything changes
I can't change that.
But god knows I've tried
Everything to get me high.
If they asked me to quit singing
I would, would you?
If the phone quit ringing
It could, could you?
If I can see right through you,
Then I can see it gone.
I was ever good for you,
Was I ever wrong?
Everyone changes,
I can't change that.
But god knows I've tried
Everything to get me high.
If they asked me to quit singing
I would, would you?
If the phone quit ringing
It could, could you?
If they asked me to quit singing
I would, would you?
If the phone quit ringing
It could, could you?
