

Make Up

Lou Reed

Your face when sleeping is sublime
And then you open up your eyes
Then comes pancake factor number one
Eyeliner rose hips and lips gloss are such fun
You're a slick little girl, you're a slick little girl
Rouge and coloring incense and ice
Perfume and kisses, ooo, its all so nice
You're a slick little girl
You're such a slick little girl
Now we're comin out
Out of our closets
Out on the streets
Yeah, we're comin out
When you're in bed its so wonderful
It'd be so nice to fall in love
When you get dressed, I really get my fill
People say that its impossible
Gowns lovely made out of lace
And all the things that you do to your face
You're a slick little girl
Oh, you're a slick little girl
Eyeliner, whitener, then color the eyes
Yellow and green, ooh, what a surprise
You're a slick little girl
Oh, you're such a slick little girl
Now we're comin out
Out of our closets
Out on the streets
Yes, we're comin out
Yeah, we're comin out
Yeah, we're comin out
