heissel

you
peach lips rose hips
wrapped around you
you
sonlight skintight
heaven bound
stars fly
birds sigh winds cry
beneath the ground
my love
angel grin blessed within lost and found
climb into the skin cocoon above our limbs... the harvest moon into the night... we fight, consumed with shouts of fire and hearts in bloom
you
dizzy kiss our bodies twist void of sound
you
in my arms away from harm above the clouds
with cotton candy lips like dew your pretty face and eyes of blue inside your heart is heaven true forever and always am i with you
