

Anywhere But Here

Mayday Parade

Tonight is the one thing gone wrong And I haven't said it yet, I'm falling
And the writing's on the wall Today was misery and I just can't believe this happened
And I've finally broke down
She held onto my heart but now my only star is falling
It's burning to the ground But now I'm crying out Secret love, my escape, take me far, far away Secret love, are you there? Will you answer my prayer?
Please take me anywhere but here, anywhere but here You're all I've got right now,
No one else figures out this feeling and how lonely it can get These words can cut right through
'Cause all along I've knew you're sorry but you haven't said it yet But I won't forget Secret love, my escape, take me far, far away
Secret love, are you there? Will you answer my prayer?
Please take me anywhere but here When we're together thoughts of her disappear
If I fell to pieces you'd heal this pain I feel Secret love, my escape, take me far, far away Secret love, are you there? Will you answer my prayer? Secret love, my escape, take me far, far away Secret love, are you there? Will you answer my prayer?
Please take me anywhere but here, anywhere but here
