

Focus (ft. Pro'Verb & Kendrick Lamar)

Ras Kass

Featuring Pro'Verb & Kendrick Lamar[Verse 1: Ras Kass]

Come up out that shithole, gotta get this money

Long Beach, CR, all this shit is sunny

Put the monkey in it like the shit is funny

Banana clip Ras about to split this dummy

The funk just told me to kick back

I like revenge, retaliation and get back, nigga

Got more bars than Kit-Kat

Get smacked like Kat Stacks if you lift, Jack

A motherfucker better recognize

With a flick of my wrist like Kevorkian, you all die

All I do was ball high

Trying to stay above the rim like a tall guy

That niggas' ass super fly

Y'all ride Lexus, lasonic, left lane, tall ride

OG to BG, I tried to warn ya

Only in California

[Hook: ProVerb]

Only in L.A, in L.A

In the gangsters' place

Catching up on things

Summertime, let's go ride[Verse 2: Kendrick Lamar]

Rolling down Rosecrans bumping delay see

Feeling like 1-9-9-3 '91 to the seventh jam

I'm in Long Beach, home of dilligent, dilligent gangsta shit

Gangsters killing, you wanksters quit filling your iPod's up with classics

Energy could out-match them adlibs

DBGC general

Jay know my breath marching, hold all my genitals

Yeah, it's like that cause I was taught that

Back when Dog Food dropped in the Compton swap meet parking lot

Daddy rehab three, so going to my pops we was popping now

The trunk in the caddy was rocking now

Slap a nigga in the face with a little waist, even make 'Pac salute

Snare like a beartrap, they're imperible too

Bear witness

Kids like Barry Bonds, that's the realest, nigga

[Hook: ProVerb]

Only in L.A, in L.A

In the gangsters' place
Catching up on things
Summertime, let's go ride
