

Secret Lover

Kelley James

[chorus]

I believe all of the things that you say
You're just a secret lover and I'm feeling uncovered
Well, I believe all of the things that you say
You're just a secret lover and you're gone today
You melt me with your little eyes
You're taken me down
We dated for a little while
I gave you the crown, but now
You're acting like you're running around
The queen of three castles
Bouncing all over town, wow
I thought I was the man in your life
But I'm the man on the side
And just the man you hide
But still the man you confide in
Call me when you need a riding
And three in the morning drunk dialing
You know I pray every day
You'd give me something more
But then you know you go
You lead me on you give me nothing more
You're acting like dudes do
Do you think I'm a fool for what you're putting me through?
I know that we're young and having fun and I respect that
But girl when I call, can I at least get a text back?
You took my dignity can I at least get my sweats back?
Not asking for the world I don't expect that
But in the next act just like the script reads
And when the plot twists baby you 'gon miss me
