

Something Just Ain't Right

Keith Sweat

Tossin', turnin', girl
I just can't sleep at night
Ooh, you've been cheating on me
Tell me it's a lie, huh I called you home baby
And the phone just keeps on ringing
Ooh, baby, what do you think I am?
All I wanna do is be your man I can't sleep at night
For fear someone holdin' you tight
Make me believe you are mine
And it will be ours till the end of time (Something, something)
Something, something just ain't right
It just ain't right
Something, something
Something, something just ain't right Ooh, you make me feel
So good, so good inside
And the thought of another man holdin' you tight
It makes me wanna cry
(Makes me want to cry) Don't blame me if I get suspicious, baby
When you're not at home
(Not at home)
You just had to look so good
Any man would want to make you his own You, you are mine
And I, I am yours
Tell me, tell me, baby
Is it me that you adore, now tell me (Something, something)
Something, something just ain't right
It just ain't right
Something, something
Something, something just ain't right
Tell me, tell me Oh why baby?
Oh Something out here just ain't right
Something out here just ain't right
(Ooh, baby, tell me I'm the only one)
Something out here just ain't right
Something out here just ain't right
(Tell me, baby, you know somethin' just ain't right) Uh huh
Oh, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no
See, girl
Thought of another man holdin' you tight

Thinkin' it just Something
(Something)
Something
(Something)
It just ain't right
(It just ain't right)
