Everything All The Time

(hed) P.e.

You should be more careful walking all alone
A pretty little thing like you, you should be safe at home
But you're a bad girl and I'm a bad man
I need to punish you for making me the way I am
Bitch you fine as fuck, bitch I fuck you up
I make you lose your breathe, pull your hair, I bite your neck
Bitch you such a slut, I know you like to fuck
I see it in your eyes, bitch you need me up inside you
Daddy you dirty, dirty, you make me feel so flirty
I wish you would take me home tie me up and hurt me, hurt me
Yeah, bitch I'll hurt you right, I'll murder you all night
And then I'll hide the body, just another homicide
I just want your everything all the time
It's just so chemical and so spiritual
I just want your everything all the time
It's so, so animal and so spiritual
I love to watch you bleeding for me, it's so easy for me
To keep you tied up and cryin'
From the corner you stare cold and shaking you're there
Oily separated hair, your fear is making me care
I love to watch you hurt for me
Your pain is perfect for me, it let's me know I'm alive
All alone in a room afraid what's waiting for you
Your doom, I'll cut you up from inside
I just want your everything all the time
It's just so chemical and so spiritual
I just want your everything all the time
It's so, so animal and so spiritual
It's just so chemical and so spiritual
You should be more careful walking all alone
Now you're in my world, now you can never go home
Never go home, you can never go home
I just want your everything all the time
It's just so chemical and so spiritual
I just want your everything all the time
It's so, so animal and so spiritual
I just want your everything all the time
I just want your everything all the time
I just want your everything all the time

It's so, so animal and so spiritual
It's so, so animal and so spiritual
It's just so chemical and so spiritual
