Marcos Soares

Quiet nights of quiet stars
Quiet chords from my guitar
    Floating on the silence
        That surrounds us
Quiet thoughts and quiet dreams
    Quiet walks by quiet streams
        And a window looking on
The mountains and the sea, how lovely
    This is where I wanna be
        Here with you so close to me
Until the final flicker of life's ember
    I who was lost and lonely
Believing life was only a bitter tragic joke
    I found with you, oh my dear

    The meaning of existence
        Oh, my love
    This is where I wanna be
        Here with you so close to me
Until the final flicker of life's ember
    I who was lost and lonely
Believing life was only a bitter tragic joke
    I found with you, oh my dear
        The meaning of existence
        The meaning of existence
        The meaning of existence
        Oh, my love
