

Only Reminds Me of You

MYMP

I see you beside me
It's only a dream
A vision of what used to be
The laughter, The sorrow
Pictures in time fading to memory
How could I ever let you go
Is it too late to let you know
(chorus)
I'd try to run from your side
But each place I hide it only reminds me of you
When I turned out all the lights
Even the night it only reminds me of you

I needed my freedom
That what I've thought but I was a fool to believe
My heart lied while you cried
Rivers of tears but I was to blind to see
Everything we've been through before
Now it means so much more
(chorus)
Only you....
Please come back to me
Down on my knees
Oh can you see.....
How could I ever let you go
Is it too late to let you now
(chorus twice)
