

Hate

Get Scared

It's all lies out the gate I snuck up fast,
I'm losing everything that I thought would always last
So now I lie waiting for a cure
To this poisoned and diseased
Mind I thought that had my back
Now I'm giving up, God help

I've been falling apart
Self distractive at heart
It's okay, it's okay if you hate me
I've been living my death
Over and over again
It's okay, it's okay if you hate me
'Cause I hate me
(It's ok if you hate me)

Am I blind?
I'm letting myself slip away
I'm losing every chance I get to keep myself the same
So now I hide I keep my secrets locked inside
I'll severe out the truth so the world can see my lies
Now I'm giving up, God help

I've been falling apart
Self distractive at heart
It's okay, it's okay if you hate me
(From:
I've been living my death
Over and over again
It's okay, it's okay if you hate me
'Cause I hate me

I'll slit my throat, so I'll bleed the truth
Cut out my tongue so I speak no excuse
There's enough trash in this blood to pallet you
And I'm just a fuck

Hate me, hate me, hate me
I'm just a fuck so just hate me

Hate me, hate me

(It's okay if you hate me)

I've been falling apart
Self distractive at heart
It's okay, it's okay if you hate me
I've been living my death
Over and over again
It's okay, it's okay if you hate me
'Cause I hate me

Hate me, hate me, hate me
I'm just a fuck so just
Hate me, hate me, hate me
Hate
