

Vultures (Maya Janes Cole Remix)

Vaults

Hung in a blinding light
Held in a bit to gaze, feeling the crowd melt away
Up in the desert air
Miles above the world, and the daggers that it holds
CHORUS:
We'll stand and not depart
Vultures are circling our hearts
They'll leave just skin and bones
Vultures shall tear us apart
Jealousy, it creeps
Poisoning our words, leaving a bitter taste on our Lips, tongues and teeth
Like a field with dust, it takes the sweetness from our hearts
And if you're cut but there's no blood, no blood
But it hurts, then it's true love, true
We'll hide it in a prize
Held under lock and key, feelin' the hours tick away
Up in the atmosphere
A feeling blood'll boil, letting our bodies drift away
CHORUS:
We'll stand and not depart
Vultures are circling our hearts
They'll leave just skin and bones
Vultures shall tear us apart
And if you're cut but there's no blood, no blood
But it hurts, then it's true love, true
CHORUS:
We'll stand and not depart
Vultures are circling our hearts
They'll leave just skin and bones
Vultures shall tear us apart
